SPEAKER PROFILE

Anne Marie Duvall Decker, FAIA

PRINCIPAL
DUVALL DECKER ARCHITECTS

Anne Marie Duvall Decker, FAIA, is a founding principal of Duvall Decker Architects, located in Jackson, Mississippi. Duvall Decker is an expanded design practice whose work includes architectural design, community planning, real estate development, and facility maintenance. The firm has been honored with many peer-reviewed design awards and has been selected for national design excellence projects such as the new Federal Courthouse in Greenville, Mississippi (a GSA Design Excellence project) and the new Springdale, Arkansas Municipal Complex (a Walton Family Foundation Design Excellence project).

The firm's work and approach have been highlighted in numerous publications as well as Houses for All Regions, a book published by AIA's Custom Residential Architects Network, the Oxford American, and in exhibits such as AIA's Design for the Decades. In 2017, the Architectural League of New York selected Duvall Decker as one of its Emerging Voices, and in 2019, the firm was highlighted as a "Game Changer" by Metropolis.

Anne Marie is a recognized contributor to the advancement of the profession. She has served as a long-term board member and past president of AIA Mississippi and is currently Chair of the AIA Trust.
